MasTec Names Ivette Ruiz Griffiths Vice President-Corporate Controller

April 11, 2002

MIAMI, April 11 /PRNewswire-FirstCall/ -- MasTec, Inc. (NYSE: MTZ) today announced it has named Ivette Ruiz Griffiths as Vice President-Corporate Controller. Ms. Griffiths will be responsible for financial reporting and internal controls at the corporate level, focusing on enhancing existing systems and increasing efficiency.

Ms. Griffiths has been Director of Finance for MasTec's Broadband Group since December of 1999, and previously was involved in mergers and acquisitions at MasTec. Prior to joining MasTec in 1997, Ms. Griffiths was a senior auditor at PriceWaterhouseCoopers LLP (formerly Coopers & Lybrand). Ms. Griffiths succeeds Arlene Vargas who is leaving the company to pursue other interests.

"We are very pleased to have Ivette return to the corporate management team to assist in implementing our 2002 business plan," said Donald Weinstein, MasTec's Executive Vice President and CFO. "Ivette's leadership within the company and understanding of our core business functions will allow her to both continue and expand upon the improvements initiated by Ms. Vargas."

"We are excited to see Ivette take on the role of Corporate Controller. She was an important team member in managing and growing the Broadband Group," said Broadband Group President, Robert W. Pine. "She will be an excellent corporate asset."
