

MasTec Announces Significant Revision and Enhancement to Nsoro Acquisition Earn-out Terms

December 28, 2010

CORAL GABLES, Fla., Dec. 28, 2010 /PRNewswire via COMTEX/ --

MasTec, Inc. (NYSE: MTZ) today announced that it has signed an amendment which significantly improves the Company's economics in the earn-out associated with the Nsoro acquisition, MasTec's wireless infrastructure construction and maintenance subsidiary.

Under the revised terms, MasTec will pay and deliver to the seller a one-time $40,000,000 cash payment plus 1,875,000 shares of MasTec common stock, which will be restricted for one year. Future annual earn-out payments for the five years beginning in 2011 will be reduced to 27.5% of domestic earnings before tax ("EBT") in excess of $40,000,000 and the earn-out payment for the seven month period ending July 31, 2016, reduced to 27.5% of EBT in excess of $23.3 million. Earn-outs will be payable, at MasTec's sole option, in either cash, shares of MasTec common stock, or any combination thereof. Additional terms are outlined in the 8-K filed with the SEC concurrently with this press release.

Prior to the amendment, the asset purchase agreement provided that the seller would be paid annual earn-out payments for the five years beginning in 2011 equal to the first $1,750,000 of EBT in excess of $1,750,000 of EBT plus 50% of annual EBT in excess of $3,500,000, and earn-out payments for the seven month period ending July 31, 2016 equal to the first $1,020,000 of EBT in excess of $1,020,000 plus 50% of annual EBT in excess of $2,040,000.

Jose Mas, MasTec's CEO commented, "The Company has done a great job at growing its wireless business. MasTec's wireless revenue has grown from about $70 million in 2008 to an expected $350 million in 2010. This transaction allows the company to better benefit from higher growth and earnings."

MasTec, Inc. is a leading national infrastructure construction company operating mainly throughout the United States across a range of industries. The Company's activities include the building, installation, maintenance and upgrade of energy, communication and utility infrastructure, including but not limited to: electrical utility transmission and distribution, wind farms, solar farms, other renewable energy, natural gas and petroleum pipeline infrastructure, wireless, wireline, satellite communication, industrial infrastructure and water and sewer systems. MasTec's customers are in the following industries: utilities (including wind farms, solar farms and other renewable energy, natural gas gathering systems and pipeline infrastructure), communications (including wired and wireless telephony and satellite television) and government (including water, sewer and other utility and communications work on military bases). The Company's corporate website is located at www.mastec.com.

This press release contains forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act. These statements are based on management's current expectations and are subject to a number of risks, uncertainties, and assumptions, including further or continued economic downturns, reduced capital expenditures, reduced financing availability, customer consolidation and technological and regulatory changes in the industries we serve; market conditions, technical and regulatory changes that affect us or our customers' industries; our ability to accurately estimate the costs associated with our fixed-price and other contracts and performance on such projects; our ability to replace non-recurring projects with new projects; our ability to retain qualified personnel and key management, including from acquired businesses, enforce any noncompetition agreements, integrate acquired businesses within the expected timeframes and achieve the revenue, cost savings and earnings levels from such acquisitions at or above the levels projected; the impact of the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act of 2009 and any similar local or state regulations affecting renewable energy, electrical transmission, broadband and related projects and expenditures; the effect of state and federal regulatory initiatives, including costs of compliance with existing and future environmental requirements; our ability to attract and retain qualified managers and skilled employees; trends in oil and natural gas prices; increases in fuel, maintenance, materials, labor and other costs; the timing and extent of fluctuations in geographic, weather, equipment and operational factors affecting the industries in which we operate; any material changes in estimates for legal costs or case settlements or adverse determinations on any claim, lawsuit or proceeding; the highly competitive nature of our industry; our dependence on a limited number of customers; the ability of our customers, including our largest customers, to terminate or reduce the amount of work, or in some cases prices paid for services on short or no notice under our contracts; the impact of any unionized workforce on our operations, including labor availability and relations; liabilities associated with multiemployer union pension plans, including underfunding liabilities, for our operations that employ unionized workers; any liquidity issues related to our securities held for sale; the adequacy of our insurance, legal and other reserves and allowances for doubtful accounts; any exposure related to our divested state Department of Transportation projects and assets; restrictions imposed by our credit facility, senior notes, convertible notes and any future loans or securities; the outcome of our plans for future operations, growth and services, including business development efforts, backlog and acquisitions; any dilution or stock price volatility which shareholders may experience in connection with shares we may issue as consideration for earn-out obligations in connection with past or future acquisitions, or as a result of conversions of convertible notes or other stock issuances; as well as other risks detailed in our filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission. Actual results may differ significantly from results expressed or implied in these statements. We do not undertake any obligation to update forward-looking statements.

SOURCE MasTec, Inc.